As the company was detraining at the union station at 11.30 a. m., Wheeler's American band played "Home Sweet Home." Hundreds upon hundreds of people, old and young, lined the footbridge and the approaches to Railroad square to quietly do honor to the sturdy young soldiers who looked every inch what they purported to be.

Capt. Ashton gave the command forward march and as the company, fifty ward march and as the company, fifty was the score.

Barnicle held the home team to two hits, while the visitors touched Boucher's shoots for five safeties. About 400 paid admission to see the fun and about half the number were from Putnam. There was keen rivalry for the game from the start, and but for the infield errors of the Danielson bunch game might have been going yet. Putnam got their first run in the second. Marion started the trouble with a single. Shaw, next up, hit a roller that got away from Austin, and he was safe at first. Gagne was an easy out, but Lizotte sent one through Benvenutti, and Marion scored. The second run, made in the sixth inning, was also the result of bungling work in the infield. With two out, Labelle sent a little grass curter at McClafferty, who did a juggling act and got it to too late to retire the runner. I went to second on a passed ball and scored on Marion's hit back of first. Danlelson's only chance to pull the Danielson's only chance to pull the game into winter quarters came in the sixth, McClafferty opened with a clean single to short left, and Austin followed with a fast ground ball between first and second. This put Mac on third, and with no one out the chance looked good. Tatro could not hit the ball clear of the infield, and McClafferhall clear of the infield, and McClaffer-ty was thrown out at the plate in try-ing to stretch the chance into a run. Clabby and Leopold both were out on long high ones to the outfield, and aft-er that Danielson never had a chance. The game was a good one to watch and the fans were satisfied that the show was worth the maney. The score:
